

Oregon University System Tobacco Use Policies

OHSU is committed to helping our employees, students, patients, volunteers and visitors live longer and healthier lives – that’s why all OHSU properties are tobacco-free. - Joe Robertson, M.D., M.B.A., President, OHSU

-  100% Tobacco-free campus
-  No smoking within specified distance of building entrances; exceeds minimum state law requirements (PSU: 25 feet; SOU: 15 feet)
-  No smoking within 10 feet of entrances, operable windows, air intakes (minimum requirement of Oregon Smokefree Workplace Law) – Note: Additional restrictions may be in place for specific area of campus, such as in stadiums or near residences.

Examples of Tobacco-Free Universities

(Smoking and other tobacco use prohibited on all university premises)

- East Tennessee State University
- Indiana University
- Oklahoma State University
- Oregon Health & Science University
- University of Arkansas
- University of Kentucky (effective 11/09)
- University of Minnesota, Crookston
- University of North Dakota
- University of South Carolina Upstate

